PARTNERS

Miles Berry is a plastic surgeon for Cosmetic Surgery Partners who has specialised in cosmetic surgery since 2007. He has a broad range of expertise encompassing breast surgery, facelift, eyelid surgery, tummy tuck, facial rejuvenation and gynaecological enhancement.

Miles qualified from University College London and underwent post-graduate surgical training in London, Manchester, Sydney and Paris. He was a lecturer in surgery at St Bartholomew's Hospital, being awarded both a Master of Surgery (MS) and a patent for original breast cancer research.

With previous experience including consultant posts at the prestigious Institut Curie in Paris, and at the Royal Marsden Hospital in London, Miles now works exclusively in the independent sector. He is a consultant plastic and aesthetic surgeon, a full member of BAPRAS (British Association of Plastic, Reconstructive & Aesthetic Surgeons) whose research has been rewarded twice with the BAPRAS Aesthetic Prize.

Miles has an active interest in clinical research and in 2013 co-authored the 'Good Boob Bible', a comprehensive patient guide with Dai Davies. He is also a regular media contributor for TV, radio and written press.
